

CUSTOMS AND INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Nowadays, trading activities are not limited to domestic territories. The world is capitalising upon the strengths of each country. Mastering the international trading agreements and domestic customs laws is a prerequisite for enterprises performing their business in Vietnam and avoiding any customs related risks.

Grant Thornton Vietnam's customs team consists of professionals with extensive knowledge and experience in customs, Free Trade Agreements, domestic regulations and could assist or advise the clients to comply with local or international laws, supporting practices for efficient operations, including:

- Establishing efficient import/export trading structures/customs planning;
- Monthly customs advisory; and
- Assistance in customs audits and investigations.
